

Take Afternoon Classes in Room A-3

Mondays 12:15-2:30 Advanced ESL students or higher
Students will learn to write paragraphs and essays. This will help students to prepare to enter classes taught in English; earn credits for a High School Diploma; or prepare for exams such as HiSET, Accuplacer (to enter college), Paraprofessional, or TOEFL. CASAS score of 235 or higher preferred.

Tuesdays and Fridays 12:15-2:30

Intermediate ESL students or higher

Practice pronunciation of letters, common sounds, words and speech patterns.

ESL Pronunciation

Wednesdays 11:45-2:30

Something for Everyone

Beginner ESL students—Get help with your English.

ESL students—Practice conversation with others.

All Students—Sign up for a computer program to help with reading, math, listening, career choice, keyboarding, citizenship, driver's license preparation (English & Spanish), college search; or test preparation. Need a place to study—

Bring work from class and study by yourself or with a small group. Special Mini-Lessons & Workshops—Tell us your interests and come to one-hour or one-day classes.

Thursdays 11:30-2:30

Tutor Others While You Study: And... * Learn study skills and ways to help yourself and others learn better. * Increase your confidence when speaking and writing. * Learn ways to manage your stress. * Better help your children with their homework. * Learn to teach or train workers on the job and students in the classroom. * Boost your self-esteem. * Improve your leadership skills. * Earn community service hours or credits for your high school diploma. * Be a better student. * Receive Paraprofessional test guidance. Intermediate Hi ESL Students or higher with a CASAS score of at least 224 and Qualified Community Volunteers welcome.

Tutor Training

Morning

Monday, Tuesday, Friday 8:30-12

Wednesday, Thursday 8:30-11:30

Developing English 8:30-10:15 (CASAS score of 228 or higher)

Focus: Improving general English skills in reading, writing, listening, grammar, and conversation.

English for Life Goals 10:30-12 (CASAS score of 230 or higher)

Focus: All students study vocabulary and have a choice of groups, activities, and independent work based on your goals. Special groups include: spelling, school newsletter, college preparation, career exploration, or other groups needed by the students.